Types of Program: Programs for youth, seniors, veterans and their families. Facility includes, Case Management, Oral History Project, Health & Wellness, Computer Classes, Advocacy/ Empowerment

General Type Programs:

Northside Community Center – specializes in culturally sensitive and linguistically appropriate services to the Filipino and Indo American communities. Additional support services are available through our network of community partners and volunteers to people of Korean, Chinese, Latino, Caucasian, African American, and other heritages. Their mission is to provide opportunities and comprehensive services that enrich the quality of life of those in need, especially the immigrant and under-represented communities.

Historically, Jacinto Tony Siquig Northside Community Center (JTSNCC) specialized in providing senior services. Since its inception, as the Filipino American Senior Opportunities Development Council, the center was a one-stop shop for seniors and veterans providing case management, advocacy, recreation, socialization and senior nutrition program. Today, JTSNCC provides services to youth, seniors, veterans and their families in order to care for the holistic well being of the individual through a network of support to promote better health (emotionally, physically, and/or mentally).

Available Activities:

Case management, oral history projects, health & wellness, Computer classes and Advocacy/Empowerment Program.

Phone: 408-277-5189

Supervisor: Tony Torres

Email: tony.torres@sanjoseca.gov

Types of Program: Elementary, rental, brown bag, food program

The Olinder Neighborhood Center offers programming in partnership with several non-profit organizations and neighborhood based groups from our community. Schedules of current programming can be obtained by visiting the center.

FACES Program

Did you know that many common household chemicals can be the source of rashes and other reactions among newborns? The Silicon Valley Toxics Coalition, in collaboration with the Olinder Neighborhood Center, offers eight week courses on environmental awareness that are free to the community. It's primary goal is to help residents understand the dangers of every day chemicals in and around their home, and help parents identify and keep those chemicals away from young children. Classes are conducted in English and Spanish. Contact the Olinder Neighborhood Center to enroll.

MACSA Latch Key Program

The Mexican American Community Services Agency partners with the City of San José and Olinder Elementary School to offer a safe place for elementary aged youth to go to for after school supervision through 6pm. Literacy, education, and nutrition are the focus of this program. Youth are accepted on a first come, first serve basis. To enroll, contact Eva Chavez at the Olinder Neighborhood Center.

Northside Theater Company

Northside Theatre Company (NTC), located at the Olinder Neighborhood Center, is currently in its 26th season and receives national attention for new play development while leading the way in re-defining the integrity and importance of small theatre organizations and their critical importance to the development of industry standards and emerging artists. Committed to theatre for all people, without regard to age, race, creed, culture or physical abilities, Northside is devoted to the manifestation of the human spirit by creating dramatic art through heart, collaboration and exploration. Northside offers a special Shakespeare Sundays series from 1-4pm on select Sundays. Anyone may attend these free workshops. If you have always wanted to read Shakespeare, develop your skills, or prepare for an audition. Phone the Northside office at 408-288-7820, Tues-Fri 12-5pm and reserve a space.

Olinder Brown Bag Program

Olinder Neighborhood volunteers, in cooperation with the Second Harvest Food Bank, offer nutritional assistance to area seniors through the weekly brown bag program. Food distribution for program participants is offered weekly for qualifying seniors who meet the age and income requirements. For additional information or to volunteer for this program, contact the Olinder Neighborhood Center.

Olinder Food Program

The Olinder Neighborhood Brown Bag program is an award winning neighborhood program run entirely by volunteers and dedicated to maintaining a healthy community through access to nutrition. Twice each week, volunteers work with local supermarkets to redistribute an average of $2,500 in damaged store goods to families in the neighborhood. Contact the Olinder Neighborhood Center for additional information.

Olinder Neighborhood Computer Lab

The Olinder Neighborhood Center has a computer lab available for community use. The lab features MAC and PC computers. Neighborhood residents have free access to this lab on Mondays and Fridays from 8:30-10:30am.

Olinder Neighborhood Association

The Olinder Neighborhood Association meets monthly to strengthen their neighborhood, provide input to center staff on programs and community issues, and plan events that improve their community. Residents have focused on crime, traffic calming, and the development of Selma Olinder Park as part of their focus. Neighborhood leaders have also been actively involved in plans and activities to improve their community through the Five Wounds/Brookwood Terrace Strong Neighborhoods Initiative. If you would like to be part of this energetic group of neighborhood leaders, please contact the Olinder Neighborhood Center or the Five Wounds/Brookwood Terrace SNI office at 408-297-3301.

SAN JOSE AFTER SCHOOL

San José After School is a partnership by the City of San José, with school districts, community-based organizations, teachers and parents to provide safe, fun, and enriching activities for youth after school. Olinder Neighborhood Center hosts a San José After School Program. The comprehensive, level 3 programming integrates literacy, leadership, education, nutrition, cultural arts and recreation activities. San José After School is available from 3-6pm Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays, and 2-6pm Tuesdays.
